3. Accuracy

3.1. The content on the Site is provided for general information only. It is not intended to amount to advice on which you should rely. You must obtain professional or specialist advice before taking, or refraining from, any action on the basis of the content on our site.

3.2. Although we make reasonable efforts to update the information on our site, we make no representations, warranties or guarantees, whether express or implied, that the content on our Site is accurate, complete or up to date.

4. Cookies

4.1 We use cookies to make visiting our Site easier and enhance the user experience. To find out more about how we use cookies please visit our Cookie Policy.

5. Disclaimer

5.1. We try to make sure that the Site is accurate, up-to-date and free from bugs, but we cannot promise that it will be. Furthermore, we cannot promise that the EEA Site will be fit or suitable for any purpose. Any reliance that you may place on the information on the Site is at your own risk.

5.2 We will not be liable to you for any (including indirect and consequential) loss or damage, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, even if foreseeable, arising under or in connection with use of, or inability to use, the EEA Site or use of or reliance on any content displayed on EEA website.

5.3. Mention of third party products, services, companies and websites on the EEA Site is for informational purposes only and constitutes neither an endorsement nor a recommendation.

6. Websites we link to

6.1 Where the Site contains links to other sites and resources provided by third parties, these links are provided for your information only. Such links should not be interpreted as approval by EEA of those linked websites or information you may obtain from them. This is because we have no control over the content of those sites or resources.

7. We may suspend or withdraw our Site

7.1 Our Site is made available free of charge.

7.2 We do not guarantee that our site, or any content on it, will always be available or be uninterrupted. We may suspend or withdraw or restrict the availability of all or any part of our Site for business and operational reasons. We will try to give you reasonable notice of any suspension or withdrawal.

7.3 You are also responsible for ensuring that all persons who access our Site through your internet connection are aware of these terms of use and other applicable terms and conditions, and that they comply with them.

8. We may make changes to our site

8.1 We may update and change our Site from time to time to reflect changes to our services, our users' needs and our business priorities.

9. We may transfer this agreement to someone else

9.1 We may transfer our rights and obligations under these terms to another organisation. We will always tell you in writing if this happens and we will ensure that the transfer will not affect your rights under the contract.

10. User-generated content approval

10.1. EEA Site may include information and materials uploaded by other users of the EEA website, including bulletin boards and chat rooms. This information and these materials have not been verified or approved by EEA. The views expressed by other users on the EEA Site do not necessarily represent EEA's views or values.

10.2. If you wish to complain about information and materials uploaded by other users please contact info@eea.international

11. Uploading content to EEA website

11.1. Whenever EEA makes use of a feature that allows you to upload content to the EEA website, or to make contact with other users of the EEA website, you must comply with the content standards set out in our Acceptable Use Policy.

11.2. You warrant that any such contribution complies with those standards, and you will be liable to EEA, indemnify and hold us harmless, for any breach of that warranty. This means you will be responsible for any loss or damage we suffer as a result of your breach of warranty.

11.3. Any content you upload to EEA Site will be considered non-confidential and non-proprietary. You retain all of your ownership rights in your content, but you are required to grant us and other users of the EEA Site a perpetual, royalty free, worldwide, licence to use, store and copy that content and to distribute and make it available to third parties.

11.4. We also have the right to disclose your identity to any third party who is claiming that any content posted or uploaded by you to EEA Site constitutes a violation of their intellectual property rights, or of their right to privacy.

11.5. We have the right to remove any posting you make on the EEA Site if, in our opinion, your post does not comply with the content standards set out in Our Acceptable Use Policy.

11.6. You are solely responsible for securing and backing up your content.

12. Intellectual Property

12.1. We are the owner or the licensee of all intellectual property rights in the EEA website, and in the material published on it. Those works are protected by copyright laws and treaties around the world. All such rights are reserved.

12.2. You may print off, and may download extracts, of any page from any EEA Site for your personal use and you may draw the attention of others within your organisation to content posted on EEA website.

12.3. You must not modify the paper or digital copies of any materials that you have printed off or downloaded in any way, and you must not use any illustrations, photographs, video or audio sequences or any graphics separately from any accompanying text.

12.4. Our status (and that of any identified contributors) as the authors of content on EEA Site must always be acknowledged.

12.5. You must not use any part of the content on EEA Site for commercial purposes without obtaining a licence to do so from EEA or our licensors.

12.6. If you print off, copy or download any part of the EEA Site in breach of these terms of use, your right to use all of the EEA websites will cease immediately and you must, at our option, return or destroy any copies of the materials you have made.

13. Limitation of liability: YOUR ATTENTION IS PARTICULARLY DRAWN TO THIS CLAUSE.

13.1 We exclude all implied conditions, warranties, representations or other terms that may apply to our Site or any content on it.

13.2 We will not be liable to you for any loss or damage, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, even if foreseeable, arising under or in connection with:

- use of, or inability to use, our site; or
- use of or reliance on any content displayed on our site.

In particular, we will not be liable for:

- loss of profits, sales, business, or revenue;
- business interruption;
- loss of anticipated savings;
- loss of business opportunity, goodwill or reputation; or
- any indirect or consequential loss or damage.

Furthermore, we are not liable to you if we fail to comply with these Terms because of circumstances beyond our reasonable control[, including, but not limited to, strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes; breakdown of systems or network access; or flood, fire, explosion or accident].

14. Severance

14.1 Each paragraph of these Terms operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them is unlawful or unenforceable, the remaining paragraphs will remain in full force and effect.

15. We are not responsible for viruses and you must not introduce them

15.1 We do not guarantee that our Site will be secure or free from bugs or viruses.

15.2 You are responsible for configuring your information technology, computer programmes and platform to access our Site. You should use your own virus protection software. You must not misuse our Site by knowingly introducing viruses, trojans, worms, logic bombs or other material that is malicious or technologically harmful.

15.3 You must not attempt to gain unauthorised access to our site, the server on which our Site is stored or any server, computer or database connected to our Site. You must not attack our Site via a denial-of-service attack or a distributed denial-of service attack. By breaching this provision, you would commit a criminal offence under the Computer Misuse Act 1990. We will report any such breach to the relevant law enforcement authorities and we will cooperate with those authorities by disclosing your identity to them. In the event of such a breach, your right to use our Site will cease immediately.

16. Trademarks

16.1 EEA brand names and certification marks are either (i) registered and protected across various countries around the world, or (ii) being considered to be in the process of being registered and protected across various countries around the world. Trademarks belonging to EEA (whether registered or unregistered) may not be used without express written permission from the EEA.

17. Disputes

We will try to resolve any disputes with you quickly and efficiently. If you are unhappy with us, please contact us as soon as possible using the contact details set out at the top of this page.

18. Governing Law

18.1 These terms and Conditions are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and we each irrevocably agree to submit all disputes arising out of or in connection with the Contract to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
